Epworth's Annual Work Day Offering, September 8, 2019

EPWORTH IS OUR MINISTRY! Where do children go when DSS has taken them from their families because of abuse or neglect? What about when a mother is struggling with addiction and is neglecting her children? Currently, over 80 children call Epworth home. Each of these children have found refuge in the ministry we share as United Methodists in SC. Epworth Children's Home has been welcoming children in Christ's name for 123 years through the generous support of churches like ours! We will participate in the annual Work Day Offering on Sunday, September 8th, to benefit the children who call Epworth home. Please be in prayerful consideration of what God is calling you to give to this valuable and life changing ministry. For information about Epworth Children's Home, you can visit them on the web at www.epworthchildrenshome.org or find them on Facebook.

The Advocate

The Advocate newspaper has been keeping United Methodists in South Carolina informed about our church's work in the state and across the globe since 1837. It is the oldest continuously published newspaper in Methodism. Since 2010, the Advocate has won more than 80 awards for journalistic excellence.

If you wish to keep abreast of United Methodism a subscription to the Advocate is a no-brainer. The cost is $15 annually, however, if we sign up 10 or more people, the cost will be $10 for a year's subscription. If you subscribed last year, please know your subscription is ending. You will need to subscribe again. I hope we can subscribe 50 folks by the beginning of September. If you will note your subscription request on the Communication Sheet in your bulletin and include a $10 check designated "Advocate," we will send all subscription requests together. Please note, your subscription request will not be honored until payment is made. Thank for your desire to keep informed with the mission and work of the United Methodist Church!
